NEWSLETTER JANUARY TO MARCH - 2026

Editorial Note:

Look Back to Move Forward

As we close the quarter ending March, we look back on a year filled with events, challenges, and invaluable learnings. Every year reminds us that progress is a journey of constant improvement — of doing more good with greater clarity, positivity, and alignment to our mission and core values.

Unnati was founded with a singular purpose: to ensure jobs for aspirants and create pathways to dignified livelihoods. Our centre model continues to uphold this promise by enabling 100% placements for youth within 35 days.

To further deepen our reach and create a level playing field, especially for youth from rural India, we launched the UNXT model. The results have been extraordinary. Over the last three years, we have impacted more than 4 lakh youth, a milestone that still feels both humbling and almost unbelievable.

What inspires us even more is the shift in our focus going forward. Beyond the number of youth trained, our true measure of success is the number of jobs secured. This remains at the heart of Unnati's philosophy.

Having reached nearly 1,80,000 youth across the country in a single year, we now move ahead with a clear goal for 2026–27 — to enable 50,000 youth to secure jobs with authenticated proof of employment.

Our continuous innovation in curriculum, delivery, and alignment with evolving industry requirements has positioned Unnati as a frontrunner in employability initiatives across the country. The efficiency and cost-effectiveness with which we deliver guaranteed jobs continue to make our model unique.

The road ahead, however, will not be easy. Global uncertainties, economic pressures, shrinking CSR budgets, and the burden of inflation on donors are challenges we must prepare for.

Yet, our resolve remains stronger than ever.

With an administrative cost of less than 5%, we continue to ensure that the maximum benefit reaches the beneficiary. Every rupee contributed translates into meaningful and measurable impact.

As we step into 2026–27, let us work together to help 50,000 families move out of poverty, live with dignity, and become part of an inclusive society.

This is not just about numbers. It is about recognising the importance of giving India's youth — the future of our nation — a meaningful opportunity and a job.

Together, let us channel the power of India's demographic advantage into lasting transformation
